Employment Officer Of Veterans Resigns

Washington headquarters of the Disabled American Veterans yesterday announced the resignation of Fraser Gardner, national employment officer for DAV and originator of the Veterans Radio Program over Station WINX.

In a letter to the retiring officer, Millard W. Rice, national service director of the vet organization, said he accepted the resignation with regret and cited Gardner's efforts toward employment and Civil Service adjustments "which will prove helpful to disabled veterans in the future."